Canadian Champion named #1 in world at Global Student Entrepreneur Awards

11.19.2009

Toronto, ON (Thursday, November 19, 2009) - Milun Tesovic, Co-Founder of Metroleap Media Inc. and full time student at Simon Fraser University, has been named the Global Champion at the 2009 Global Student Entrepreneur awards held in Kansas City, Missouri on November 19, 2009. After competing against 30 other student entrepreneurs from 18 countries, the Canadian Champion took home first place with USA in second and Singapore in third.

“Once again, our students have proven to be exceptional ambassadors for Canada while at the same time, inspirational young enterprisers for their peers around the world”, comments ACE President Amy Harder .

Since 2004, Milun Tesovic has owned and operated Metroleap Media Inc. - a leading provider of music and entertainment content. Its flagship product, MetroLyrics.com is the first lyrics-dedicated site to provide users with the largest database of licensed, complete and accurate song lyrics. MetroLyrics has become the most trafficked lyrics site worldwide reaching 36 million unique monthly visitors, 100 million monthly page views, and is currently the 3rd largest music property in North America. Milun's latest accomplishment is a strategic partnership with AOL Music where MetroLyrics.com will be the only website providing AOL users with song lyrics worldwide.

The Global Student Entrepreneur Champion receives a US $10,000 cash prize, plus thousands of dollars in business products and services donated by Entrepreneurs' Organization members including web, printing, public relations and consulting services.

About Global Student Entrepreneur Awards
As the premier global competition for undergraduate students, the Global Student Entrepreneur Awards (GSEA) inspire students to adopt entrepreneurial endeavors by bringing global visibility to student business owners who are innovative, profitable and socially responsible. Since 1998, the GSEA, a program founded at the John Cook School of Business at Saint Louis University, has honored outstanding undergraduates who juggle a full course load while running their own businesses at the same time. The Entrepreneurs' Organization (EO) took on leadership of the GSEA in 2006 to offer student entrepreneurs access to a global network of mentors, resources and connections from the most influential community of entrepreneurs in the world.

About National Student Entrepreneur Competition

The National Student Entrepreneur Competition is proudly presented by CIBC and operated by national charitable organization ACE. Now in existence for 14 years, this annual competition enables student entrepreneurs to showcase their business on a regional, national and international stage, network with like-minded students and leverage valuable training to accelerate the growth of their business. The purpose of the competition is to encourage student entrepreneurs to continue with their business beyond graduation and become Canada's next great entrepreneurs.
